HERRICK MAY SOON BECOME AMBASSADOR

Taft Offers Paris Post to Buckeye Politician.

Can Well Afford Position

President Said to Have Given Former Governor Choice of French Post or Pre-convention Campaign Management — Latter Place Declined and Former Said to Be Under Advisement, Although Banker Says He Is Not Seeking Place.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Myron T. Herrick has been tendered the important post of ambassador to France as successor to Robert Bacon by President Taft, according to reliable information here. It was learned that the president intended when he left Washington on his trip to Ohio to ask Mr. Herrick to accept the diplomatic post at Paris, and in the event of Mr. Herrick's declining to go abroad, to invite him to assume charge of the headquarters that are soon to be opened in Washington in furtherance of the Taft campaign for nomination.

Dispatches from Columbus indicated that President Taft had authorized the statement that he had not asked Mr. Herrick to take charge of the pre-convention campaign headquarters. In view of this circumstance it is believed here that Mr. Herrick has signified his intention to accept the Paris post, or has asked time to consider it.

Likes Diplomatic Field.

Mr. Herrick's name has been mentioned frequently in connection with the foreign service and also as a candidate possibility since Mr. Taft's election to the presidency. His name was seriously considered for the treasury portfolio when the president was making up his official family. Mr. Herrick's circumstances are such as to make him thoroughly available or a post at one of the important European capitals. He is a man of wealth, but has recently been curtailing his business activities so that he could be able to accept the appointment abroad with little or no inconvenience if he desired to enter the diplomatic field.

If Mr. Herrick accepted the ambassadorship to France and thus makes himself unavailable to take charge of the Taft pre-convention headquarters in Washington, the president's friends are unable to suggest who to put in charge of the Taft headquarters.

It was learned, however, that Arthur L. Vorys of Ohio, who has talked of for the place, feels he will be unable to sacrifice his business.

It was learned further that an effort was made by the president when he was in New York to get Otto T. Bannard to give his time to the movement, but Mr. Bannard is not able to do this.

Herrick Noncommittal.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 31.—Colonel Herrick was emphatic in declaring he will not manage the Taft campaign this year, as, it is understood, the president desired. He was quite so emphatic in his denial that he might accept the ambassadorship. When asked if he would take the place, all he would say was: "I think not. I have no desire at present for any political position."

Harmon Leads in Poll.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—A secret poll of the constitutional convention showed that Governor Harmon leads all other presidential aspirants as first choice. The vote was: Harmon, 21; Taft, 20; Roosevelt, 15; Bryan, 14; Wilson, 11; LaFollette, 7; Clark, 5; Underwood, 1; Debs, 1; Max, 1. Seven delegates declined to commit themselves and seven were absent.

Proposes Atlantic Flight.

New York, Jan. 31.—Galbraith Rodgers, the first aviator to fly from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, declares he is willing to undertake a trip across the Atlantic if a prize of $100,000 can be raised. Mr. Rodgers' course patrolled by a seaplane, with which he would be in communication by wireless.

GEORGIA CYCLONE INVADES HOUSE

Woman Orator Too Swift for Stenographer.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Demanding enactment of legislation to prohibit the shipment of whisky into "dry" territory, representatives of the Women's Christian Temperance union stormed the United States capitol. Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, who is known in her own state as the "Georgia Cyclone," talked a subcommittee of the judiciary committee to a standstill, and absolutely stalled the official stenographers with her rapid fire of reasons for the proposed legislation.

Rev. E. P. Townsend, who, with Rev. LeRoy DeHays, signed the impeachment charges against Turnbull before Governor Harmon, will call on the mayor at the city hall today as a result of the mayor's invitation to "come down and talk things over," issued after a wordy tilt at the tabernacle.

Long Branch, N. J., Jan. 31.—Instead of being sent to the county poorhouse, as planned, James Paddock, a patient at the Monmouth Memorial hospital, fell heir to between one and three million dollars, by the death of a brother in Syracuse. N. Y. Paddock has been treated as a charity patient for paralysis.

"I guess they let me talk," she said, "because I can say more in 10 minutes than all the rest of my friends in Georgia put together."

Her accent was purely southern, but the speed of her talk was calculated to embarrass the fastest stenographers.

Mrs. Armor declared that "you folks" make laws against the shipment of rotten eggs into Georgia, yet you hesitate to enact laws to prevent the shipment of a "brain poison" into the state."

The hearing room was packed with temperance advocates from many sections of the country. There was frequent applause from the women and fervent "amens" from the men as she continued to pour hot shot at the demon rum.

Mrs. Lillian M. M. Stevens of Portland, Me., president of the Women's Christian Temperance union of America, addressed the committee in support of the proposed laws.

Makes Free Use Of Gun

Wife-Shooter Captured After Long Battle With Police.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 31.—After indulging in a wild outbreak at Glastonbury during which he shot and perhaps fatally injured his wife and attempted to shoot his sister-in-law, set fire to their home and held off a posse until the house was destroyed, John Kenefic, a former fireman, is a prisoner here.

In standing off the posse that tried to arrest him Kenefic used his two-month-old baby as a shield against the officers' bullets. He tried finally to end his own life, but had exhausted his last bullet when he snapped his revolver against his forehead.

Kenefic had been separated from his wife for some time.

A. R. TURNBULL

Canton Mayor to Confer With Would-Be Impeachers.

Mayor Cuts Out Cursing

As Result Mayor Turnbull May Not Be Impeached.

Canton, O., Jan. 31.—Mayor A. R. Turnbull hasn't used a swear word since he met Billy Sunday, over a week ago, he says. He was telling friends about quitting the use of profanity.

Rev. E. P. Townsend, who, with Rev. LeRoy DeHays, signed the impeachment charges against Turnbull before Governor Harmon, will call on the mayor at the city hall today as a result of the mayor's invitation to "come down and talk things over," issued after a wordy tilt at the tabernacle.

The president said: "I believe that the Republican party is going to be successful in November, 1912. I believe it sincerely and truly and without any mental reservation. I believe it because I have real faith in the intelligence and discrimination of the American people. I believe that they realize what good service is, and when they understand the truth the Republican party will receive their unqualified support."

Constitutional Delegates Want to Print All Debates.

SOME FEAR GREAT EXPENSE

Chairman Peck of Judiciary Committee Has Honor of Presenting First Report to Body—Recommend That Verdicts in Civil Cases Can Be Returned by Not Less Than Three-Fourths of Jury—Governor Wilson Invited to Address Convention.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—The Ohio constitutional convention devoted itself to two hours of frivolous and farcical discussion of whether it should print its debates for edification of the people, and finally put the question over until today. This followed reconsideration of the resolution to report and print the debates from day to day and in toto at the close of its sessions.

Tells Columbus Glee Club That He Is Greatly Pleased at Reception in Home State and That He Has Received Many Words of Encouragement—Predicts That Party Will Triumph at Polls Next November as Result of Its Achievements.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—President Taft this morning held a reception to Ohio editors at the Southern hotel and delivered an address before the constitutional convention. He left at 1 o'clock for Akron, where he is to speak before the chamber of commerce.

He made a political speech before the members of the Columbus Glee Club, a political and singing organization, in which he expressed the belief that the Republican party would be successful in the coming campaign because of the record of the administration in the last four years.

Mr. Taft said that the good wishes of the Republicans of Ohio and the tributes which have been paid to him on his present trip through his home state have made him hopeful that their predictions of his re-renomination and re-election will be fulfilled. The president discussed the future of the Republican party, and his speech was along the same general lines as that at Cleveland.

The president said: "I believe that the Republican party is going to be successful in November, 1912. I believe it sincerely and truly and without any mental reservation. I believe it because I have real faith in the intelligence and discrimination of the American people. I believe that they realize what good service is, and when they understand the truth the Republican party will receive their unqualified support."

U. S. Marines at Guantanamo, Our Great Cuban Naval Base

If the United States government should be obliged by the continuation of the disorders in Cuba to intervene for the third time in the internal affairs of that island it would probably make use of its naval station at Guantanamo, on the bay of the same name, thirty-seven miles east of Santiago. Upward of $10,000,000 has been spent upon the thirty square miles of territory which was granted to the United States by treaty in the building of docks, machine shops, storage houses, etc. Practically the whole Atlantic fleet is making the station its base and would be available for instant service, as well as the soldiers and marines, 3,000 of whom it is the custom of the government to maintain there. The general staff of the army at Washington has long been prepared for an emergency in Cuba, with plans matured for embarking several thousand troops within a few days' notice.

SHUSTER PROMISES TO EXPOSE ALL SECRETS

Will Tell True Story of International Intrigue.

London, Jan. 31.—Former Treasurer General of Persia Shuster, whose temperate speech at the Savoy hotel banquet called forth the most favorable comment from the daily press, told a correspondent he desired to avoid saying anything sensational until after his arrival in the United States, where he expects to be about Feb. 19. Then he will tell the whole story of the international intrigue leading to Persia's downfall.

He admitted that M. Poklevsky, the Russian minister at Teheran, had proposed 10 days after the invasion of Persia by the ex-shah, to make him (Shuster) grand vizier and put him in charge of the finances under the ex-shah, providing he would remain passive during the invasion of the former crown-head. Mr. Shuster refused this proposal on the ground that he did not intend to end his official career by proving false to the Persian government. From that time, he said, the Russian effort to force him out began.

Bergholz Goes Wet.

Steubenville, O., Jan. 31.—While the church people here were holding meetings in the men and religion forward movement, the wetts carried Bergholz at a local law election by 164 to 134. It was double the wet majority given at the recent local option election.

- WILL TACKLE COLUMBUS.
- Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—Announcement was received from Canton that Evangelist Billy Sunday will come to Columbus for a six-weeks' campaign next January.

The state was told by Delegate Elton Moore of Muskingum that the framers of the United States constitution of 1789 were enemies of the common weal and saddled an organic law onto the people which is most difficult of amendment. "Their methods were the methods of secrecy," said Mr. Moore, who is a Socialist. The remark occasioned no comment. He invited the fullest publicity and urged printing and wide distribution of debates.

Eighty-two delegates said they wanted to hear Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey address the convention, after Delegate Walter F. Brown of Lucas said there was no politics in the invitation. Judge Peck of Hamilton said he would vote yes, and declared he thought the convention should not be made a rostrum for "peripatetic philosophers and nurses of presidential booms." Governor Harmon will address the convention Feb. 8.

Miller's Plan Approved.

Delegate Miller of Fairfield county won approval for his proposal providing for exemption from taxation wood lands and other lands used for no other purpose than forests. He advanced the need of reforestation as a means of increasing the number of birds and animals valuable to farmers. The short ballot committee authorized Chairman Peck to draft a final proposal from those submitted and report to the committee.

Delegate Hahn of Cuyahoga introduced 17 proposals, bringing his list up to 48. Among other things he wants free uniform textbooks, classification of property for taxation and a provision that Sabbath shall be a civic rather than a religious institution.

The convention received its first committee report. It came from the judiciary and was to the effect that the legislature may enact laws for rendering of verdicts in civil cases by not less than three-fourths of the jury. Chairman Peck presented the report as one on several proposals, but Delegate Doty of Cuyahoga objected with vim. After declaring his displeasure with Mr. Doty's interference, Mr. Peck adopted his suggestion.

C. R. Parish Furniture Company Vacates Room Soon to Be Occupied by Stutson's Department Store--First Goods Expected to Arrive Next Week

Workmen are busily engaged placing the counters, shelving and other fixtures in the large room in the Odd Fellow building, soon to be occupied by Frank L. Stutson's Department store, and everything is being placed in readiness for the reception of the large stock of goods which will commence to arrive next week.

The C. R. Parish Furniture Company, who had a large stock of furniture in the room, moved the furniture to the basement room Tuesday and will conduct business in the large basement room until Mr. Stutson moves to the new Masonic Temple when it is completed.

The shelving is furnished by the Parker & Wood Manufacturing Company of this city, and when all of it is placed in position and filled with the large stock of goods, the room will present a very handsome appearance indeed.

So far a double row of shelving has been placed through the center of the room, and around the walls. Counters and display cases will be installed within the next few days, and the various departments laid out.

Mr. Stutson leaves for New York this week, and will purchase a full line of goods for the store, to be shipped here immediately, and by February 15th expects to open for business again.

Mighty Power Of Niagara Falls

It has been estimated that the 372,800 horsepower now developed at Niagara Falls is the equivalent of 16,776,000 man-power working an eight-hour day, or more than the combined strength of all the able-bodied men in the United States.

Under the American-Canadian Treaty, promulgated by the two nations only 56,000 cubic feet of water per second, out of a total flow of 240,000 cubic feet, may be diverted from the Niagara river for power purposes.

Stupendous although this saving is it is nothing as compared to the full strength of the Falls. The volume of water permitted to run, so as to perpetuate the beauty of the Falls, is estimated to represent 118,650,000 eight-hour man-power or about 18,000,000 more man power than there are men, women and children in the United States and all its possessions.

Relics of Maine For U. S. Cities

A resident of Washington, D. C., who is in touch with affairs at that point, writes to friends in Wilmington that if prompt action is taken and application made, Wilmington can secure a splendid relic from the battle of Maine, now under course of being floated.

If the matter is acted upon by Washington citizens, there is every reason to believe that a valuable relic could be secured for this city at little cost.

Madison Mills

Quite a number from here were in Washington Tuesday.

Mr. Frank Dorn was a business visitor in Washington Tuesday.

Frank Wood changed farms Tuesday moving from the Hoyt land near Madison Mills to the Joe Baldwin farm near White Oak.

Marion Cook, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cook, who has been very ill with pneumonia for the past week, is greatly improved.

A Dayton Lumber Co. has purchased a lot of timber of Mr. Forest Cline and is now engaged in cutting same and loading at this place for shipment.

Frank Dorn recently purchased the building used by W. B. Erskine as a Carriage Factory and Garage. Mr. Erskine is to operate a garage in Mt. Sterling.

An attempt was made Tuesday to clear the road from the Jefferson school house to the Jones road. This road has been filled with snow the past two weeks. A road had been made through the farm of Howard Jefferson, but owing to the thawing and freezing of recent date it was becoming dangerous.

Sunday visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Grimm, of New Holland; Mrs. Haing and daughters, Ruth and Helen, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hughes with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Warner; Mr. and Mrs. George Dorn with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cook; Mr. and Mrs. Linkhart with Mrs. Wm. McCarthy; Mr. and Mrs. John Tway, Mrs. John Peters, Mrs. Jane Green and Eben Thomas with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hilsheimer; Miss Tillie Hilsheimer with her mother at this place.

Damage Suits Dismissed

Possessed No Grounds

Two damage suits brought in Montgomery county some three years ago against Rell G. Allen of this city, and Chas. C. Acton and George Stine, all deputy game wardens, were dismissed Tuesday of this week.

The suits were brought by Garland K. Kindred and his wife, Seany Kindred. Kindred sued for $3,000 and his wife for $5,000, both charging that the three defendants, representing themselves as deputy fish and game wardens, broke into his house near Germantown, knocked Mrs. Kinkead unconscious and searched the premises for supposed evidence.

This is the case wherein the woman assaulted the men with an ax severely injuring one of them. The case was dismissed because it had no merits, it being proven that the deputies had not exceeded their legal rights.

Unclaimed Letters

The following unclaimed letters remain at the Washington Post office:

Ladies—Miss Nore Apple, Mrs. Mirell Allen, Miss Stella Bins, Miss Ina Brown, Arvilla C. Gullett, Mrs. Frank Harper, Evelyn Morgan, Mrs. Will Mouray, Mrs. Horace McLean, Mrs. W. C. Price, Mrs. Elsie Smith, Miss Eunia Stethem, Miss Nda Snyder, Miss Mary Temple, Mrs. J. M. Williams.

Gentlemen—W. C. Balcher, Wesley Brooks, Guy Chestnut, George Chestnut, Ben Craig, J. R. Cave, E. M. Gilligan, Hutchin & Gibney, John Kearney, William Karstedt, Billy Lardiner, J. M. Wing, Floyd Yeager.

INSTALLING FIXTURES FOR STUTSON'S STORE

STORE OPENS MIDDLE OF MONTH

C. R. Parish Furniture Company
Vacates Room Soon to Be Occupied by Stutson's Department Store--First Goods Expected to Arrive Next Week

Workmen are busily engaged placing the counters, shelving and other fixtures in the large room in the Odd Fellow building, soon to be occupied by Frank L. Stutson's Department store, and everything is being placed in readiness for the reception of the large stock of goods which will commence to arrive next week.

The C. R. Parish Furniture Company, who had a large stock of furniture in the room, moved the furniture to the basement room Tuesday and will conduct business in the large basement room until Mr. Stutson moves to the new Masonic Temple when it is completed.

The shelving is furnished by the Parker & Wood Manufacturing Company of this city, and when all of it is placed in position and filled with the large stock of goods, the room will present a very handsome appearance indeed.

So far a double row of shelving has been placed through the center of the room, and around the walls. Counters and display cases will be installed within the next few days, and the various departments laid out.

Mr. Stutson leaves for New York this week, and will purchase a full line of goods for the store, to be shipped here immediately, and by February 15th expects to open for business again.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

always give satisfaction because they always do the work. J. T. Shelton, Bremen, Ga., says: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills with great satisfaction and found more relief from their use than from any other kidney medicine, and I've tried almost all kinds. I can cheerfully recommend them to all sufferers for kidney and bladder trouble." Foley Kidney Pills will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. Blackmer & Tanquary.

Little Variation In Temperature

From Monday morning until the noon hour Wednesday the mercury has not varied ten degrees, the gossard self-registering thermometer varying from 18 to 27 degrees above zero.

The atmosphere being damp the cold has apparently been much more intense than what the mercury really shows. It is unusual at this time of the year for the thermometer to show such little variation during more than two days' time.

THE DANGER OF LA GRIPPE

Is its fatal tendency to pneumonia.

To cure your la grippe coughs take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

R. E. Fisher, Washington, Kas., says:

"I was troubled with a severe attack of lagrippe and nothing I used did me any good and I was threatened with pneumonia. A friend advised me to use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and I got some at once. I was relieved from the very first. By the time I had taken three bottles my la grippe was gone. I believe Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to be the best medicine I ever used and always keep a bottle with me." Blackmer & Tanquary.

Mr. Martin is one of the real hustling young business men of the county and owing to his long association with the hardware and implement business in this city, he has made a very large circle of acquaintances throughout the city and county.

He was a member of The Fayette County Hardware Company ever since its formation until the stock and building were totally destroyed by fire on the night of December 30th last. Since that time Mr. Martin has arranged to conduct business on his own account in the Persinger rooms

Mighty Power Of Niagara Falls

It has been estimated that the 372,800 horsepower now developed at Niagara Falls is the equivalent of 16,776,000 man-power working an eight-hour day, or more than the combined strength of all the able-bodied men in the United States.

Under the American-Canadian Treaty, promulgated by the two nations only 56,000 cubic feet of water per second, out of a total flow of 210,000 cubic feet, may be diverted from the Niagara river for power purposes.

Stupendous although this saving is it is as nothing as compared to the full strength of the Falls. The volume of water permitted to run, so as to perpetuate the beauty of the Falls, is estimated to represent 118,650,000 eight-hour man-power or about 18,000,000 more man power than there are men, women and children in the United States and all its possessions.

IN SOCIETY

An anticipated event in O. S. U. circles and one in which many local people share is the annual spring play put on by the Strollers' Drama club of the State University.

This year the club is rehearsing for "The Maneuvers of Jane," a clever Henry Arthur Jones comedy. The play will be given at the Hartman theater March 22nd and 23rd. There will be three performances two in the evening and one matinee.

Professional coaches have assumed the direction of the play and will train the amateurs.

Miss Mina Rowe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Rowe, of this city, who graduates in June, represents Washington C. H. students in the Strollers' club, and takes the principal character part of Mrs. Beecham.

Miss Rowe scored great success in last year's play put on by the dramatic club and her appearance this year elicits no small interest among many friends here.

It is expected that the play will be taken to other cities and its prestige by no means confined to Columbus.

Mr. Frank L. Stutson was a business visitor in Cincinnati Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Lewis is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Miss Nina Bonham is spending the week in Greenfield the guest of Miss Ruth Harps.

Fred Carpenter came home from the O. S. U. Wednesday for a few days' vacation.

Walter McCoy arrives from Columbus Wednesday evening to spend the semester vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lyle, of Dayton, were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Chaffin's guests this week.

Mrs. William Staubus went to Columbus Wednesday to visit Mrs. E. Eustick and daughter, Miss Faye.

I will not bake bread Thursday on account of sickness. Mrs. H. L. Robins.

Mr. Joseph Myers, of North street, is critically ill, and his children have been summoned to his bedside.

Richard Ramsey returned Wednesday morning from St. Petersburg, Fla., and other resorts of the South, leaving his father, Capt. E. A. Ramsey in St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Earl Cockerill went to Mt. Sterling Wednesday to be the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Harry G. Beale and to attend a series of society functions, given by Mrs. Beale in her beautiful new home.

CLUB NEWS

An unusually good attendance, large number of visitors and bright, versatile program devoted to Ireland, formed coalition to make last night's Browning club meeting out of the ordinary.

The department of household economics had charge. Mrs. Reba Bay, chairman. Mrs. W. E. Robinson opened the program with a beautiful piano solo, "The Last Rose of Summer," by an Irish composer.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter presented Ireland and its patriotism in the home in a fascinating reading of William Butler Yates' drama, "Kathleen Ni Hoolihan." In this drama Irish lovers of liberty cried to the maiden who personified their dear country, the affection they dared not voice openly. Mrs. Carpenter gave the drama fine portrayal.

Mrs. Bay read a paper on "What It Is to Be a Neighbor," written by Mrs. Jos. E. Mark. It was a beautifully written paper, not long, but a gem in its thought.

"Domestic Science as a Factor in Our Modern Education," was the subject of a splendid paper, well delivered, by Miss Goldie Baughn.

The writer gave insight into what is being done in domestic science lines in the prominent schools and institutes of the country.

It was with much pleasure that the club listened to a talk by Miss Mina Rowe on the Ohio State Domestic course.

Miss Rowe graduates this year from O. S. U. in the four years' domestic science course, a course which is difficult and requires no small effort to win the degree of Bachelor of Science. Miss Rowe is an interesting speaker and had her subject thoroughly in hand. The O. S. U. course delves in practical application of science for life work, taking up in its study chemistry and bacteriology in their relations to domestic science and its preparation for complete life work. The young student outlined the work of the four years' course in detail.

Mrs. Arthur Burgett added to the program a group of charmingly sung songs by Miss McClure, the composer accompanying.

Tuesday afternoon was "Mozart Day" with the Cecilians, at the home of Mrs. D. S. Craig. Miss Del Lanum had the meeting in charge and led a very interesting discussion on Grand Opera. A description of Mozart's opera, "Figaro," was given by Miss Edith Gardner. Miss Light and Miss Gardner played the "Overture to Marriage of Figaro" and Miss Gardner sang effectively Mozart's "Voi Che Sapete," in German, a pretty, melodious composition.

Discussions on the work in hand closed the program.

Monks Beheaded By Turkish Mob

Special to Herald.

Sofia Jan. 31—Turkish mob stormed Bulgarian Monastery near U. S. Kab and decapitated nine Monks Slaughter inspired by blowing up Turkish Mosque recently.

A divorce suit somewhat out of the ordinary was filed in Common Pleas court Tuesday by W. B. Nevins, attorney for Ouida Wilson, who in addition to asking for divorce, prays for alimony and restoration of certain chattel property, also a restraining order to prevent her husband selling certain property.

Mrs. Wilson alleged that on Jan. 24, 1912, her husband compelled her to pack her clothes and drove her 8 miles to the railway station, and sent her to her parents in Dayton. She also claims he was guilty of other acts of cruelty.

Mrs. Wilson further accuses her husband of other statutory offenses, and names one, Roxey Ellis, a young woman of the Moon's neighborhood, as co-respondent.

She further asks that certain household goods owned by her, be awarded her, and upon her application for a temporary restraining order to prevent the defendant from selling certain property on the Elba Wilson farm, the restraining order was granted by the Court.

Mrs. Wilson prays that she be restored to her maiden name of Ouida Higgins.

January has been a record breaking month with the township trustees in giving relief to the poor.

Not for a long time has there been as many calls as during this month when the extreme cold, the bitterest weather in many years, has driven many to seek help from the township.

The trustees responded to calls readily, anxious to prevent suffering and 200 orders for coal and groceries were given in January alone.

Falls on Ice Fractures Hip

Mrs. W. J. McCoy, of Bloomingburg, met with a serious accident Tuesday morning. Going from her home she slipped on the ice sustaining a terrible fall in which the hip was fractured.

The attending physician, Dr. Hollen, called Dr. H. L. Stitt, of this city, and the broken bones were replaced.

Mrs. McCoy suffered intensely but the fracture is doing as well as possible and it is thought will not prove permanently inconvenient.

Freight Wreck on B. & O. Wrecker Is Called Out

The B. & O. wrecker was called to Bloomingburg at 9:30 Wednesday morning to clean up a small freight wreck which tied up all traffic until late Wednesday afternoon, when the obstruction was removed and traffic resumed.

The yard engine, with a number of cars, was on its way from Columbus to this city, when the trucks of a steel hopper left the rails just east of where the road crosses the pike near the Bloomingburg cemetery and ploughed into the road bed.

Efforts to remove the wreck without the wrecker proved fruitless, and it was called, going from Chillicothe to Midland City, and thence up through this city. No. 104, due here at 10:36 was detained over the Pan Handle, causing disappointment to a number who were on their way to Columbus to see President Taft.

SOCIETY

An anticipated event in O. S. U. circles and one in which many local people share is the annual spring play put on by the Strollers' Dramatic club of the State University.

This year the club is rehearsing for "The Maneuvers of Jane," a clever Henry Arthur Jones comedy. The play will be given at the Hartman theater March 22nd and 23rd. There will be three performances two in the evening and one matinee.

Professional coaches have assumed the direction of the play and will train the amateurs.

Miss Mina Rowe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Rowe, of this city, who graduates in June, represents Washington C. H. students in the Strollers' club, and takes the principal character part of Mrs. Beechwood.

Miss Rowe scored great success in last year's play put on by the dramatic club and her appearance this year elicits no small interest among many friends here.

It is expected that the play will be taken to other cities and its prestige be by no means confined to Columbus.

Mr. Frank L. Stutson was a business visitor in Cincinnati Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Lewis is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Miss Nina Bonham is spending the week in Greenfield the guest of Miss Ruth Harps.

Fred Carpenter came home from the O. S. U. Wednesday for a few days' vacation.

Walter McCoy arrives from Columbus Wednesday evening to spend the semester vacation.

Mrs. William Staubus went to Columbus Wednesday to visit Mrs. E. E. Ulrich and daughter, Miss Faye.

I will not bake bread Thursday on account of sickness. Mrs. H. L. Robins.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES MADE IN DIVORCE SUIT

Young Farmer Alleged to Have Forced Wife to Return to Parents---Wife Brings Suit and Names Another Woman.

Miss Jean Glascock has been induced by Supt. McClain to teach the East Side grade left vacant by the resignation of Miss Florence Saxon until the close of school. Miss Glascock is an unusually bright girl, having the advantage of a college education, and the school management is fortunate in securing her.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Merchant, of Octa, who have been spending the early winter in New York City, left last week for the South stopping en route at Washington, D. C. They are at present in New Orleans, La., and expect to travel in the South the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Lewis Syester and children, Lewis and Jane, who have been visiting Mrs. Syester's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Parrett, the past two months, left Wednesday morning for their home in Hagerstown, Md.

Dr. E. M. Boggess, now making his home at Mt. Oreb, Brown Co., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunn, the past two days, called here by the serious illness of his nephew, Paul Dunn.

Mr. John Noble, who underwent a serious operation in the Hodson hospital two weeks ago, has recovered splendidly and was able to be taken to his home on South Fayette street Tuesday.

Miss Alice Tway, who graduates from the O. S. U. the coming June, is spending the semester vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Austin Tway.

Miss Helen Jones came down from Ohio State University Wednesday afternoon to spend the semester vacation with her mother, Mrs. Ada Jones.

Paul Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunn, who has been critically ill with pneumonia, is better with excellent prospects for his recovery.

Miss Hilda Kyle, who is a student at the O. S. U., is spending the semester vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kyle.

Clarence Craig wishes to thank his many friends for the large number of beautiful postcards received on his birthday.

Mr. Samuel Hickley, of Omaha, Neb., is spending a couple of days the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Werten Shoop.

Dr. C. C. Hazard and family returned Tuesday night from a visit with Mrs. Hazard's parents in Centerville.

Miss Mary Chenoweth returned Wednesday morning to her home in Waverly after a visit with Mrs. Rebecca Perrill.

Mrs. E. W. Bilyeu and daughter, Marjorie, have returned from a visit in Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Carl Mallow has been among the Taft visitors in Columbus this week.

Mr. Herbert Brownell is spending the day in Columbus.

Mrs. Cliff Reid and little daughter, Margaret, are visiting at Bowling Green.

Mr. Frank McCormick left Wednesday morning on a business trip to Chicago.

Miss Myrtle McCoy returned Wednesday evening from a two weeks' visit in Marietta.

Mr. Joseph Myers, of North street, is critically ill, and his children have been summoned to his bedside.

Richard Ramsey returned Wednesday morning from St. Petersburg, Fla., and other resorts of the South, leaving his father, Capt. E. A. Ramsey, in St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Earl Cockerill went to Mt. Sterling Wednesday to be the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Harry G. Beale and to attend a series of society functions, given by Mrs. Beale in her beautiful new home.

CLUB NEWS

An unusually good attendance, large number of visitors and bright, versatile program devoted to Ireland, formed coalition to make last night's Browning club meeting out of the ordinary.

The department of household economics had charge. Mrs. Reba Bay, chairman. Mrs. W. E. Robinson opened the program with a beautiful piano solo, "The Last Rose of Summer," by an Irish composer.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter presented Ireland and its patriotism in the home in a fascinating reading of William Butler Yeats' drama, "Kathleen Ni Hoolihan." In this drama Irish lovers of liberty cried to the maiden who personified their dear country, the affection they dared not voice openly. Mrs. Carpenter gave the drama fine portrayal.

Mrs. Gay read a paper on "What It Is to Be a Neighbor," written by Mrs. Jos. E. Mark. It was a beautifully written paper, not long, but a gem in its thought.

"Domestic Science as a Factor in Our Modern Education," was the subject of a splendid paper, well delivered, by Miss Goldie Baughn.

The writer gave insight into what is being done in domestic science lines in the prominent schools and institutes of the country.

It was with much pleasure that the club listened to a talk by Miss Mina Rowe on the Ohio State Domestic course.

Miss Rowe graduates this year from O. S. U. in the four years' domestic science course, a course which is difficult and requires no small effort, to win the degree of Bachelor of Science. Miss Rowe is an interesting speaker and had her subject thoroughly in hand. The O. S. U. course delves in practical application of science for life work, taking up in its study chemistry and bacteriology in their relations to domestic science and its preparation for complete life work. The young student outlined the work of the four years' course in detail.

Mrs. Arthur Burgett added to the program a group of charmingly sung songs by Miss McClure, the composer accompanying.

Tuesday afternoon was "Mozart Day" with the Cecilians, at the home of Mrs. D. S. Craig. Miss Del Lanum had the meeting in charge and led a very interesting discussion on Grand Opera. A description of Mozart's opera, "Figaro," was given by Miss Edith Gardner. Miss Light and Miss Gardner played the "Overture to Marriage of Figaro" and Miss Gardner sang effectively Mozart's "Voi Che Sapete," in German, a pretty, melodious composition.

Discussions on the work in hand closed the program.

Monks Beheaded
By Turkish Mob

Special to Herald.
Sofia Jan. 31—Turkish mob stormed Bulgarian Monastery near U. S. Kab and despatched nine Monks slaughtered inspired by blowing up Turkish Mosque recently.

A divorce suit somewhat out of the ordinary was filed in Common Pleas court Tuesday by W. B. Nevins, attorney for Ouida Wilson, who in addition to asking for divorce, prays for alimony and restoration of certain chattel property, also a restraining order to prevent her husband selling certain property.

Mrs. Wilson alleged that on Jan. 24, 1912, her husband compelled her to pack her clothes and drove her 8 miles to the railway station, and sent her to her parents in Dayton. She also claims he was guilty of other acts of cruelty.

Mrs. Wilson further accuses her husband of other statutory offenses, and names one, Roxey Ellis, a young woman of the Moon's neighborhood, as co-respondent.

She further asks that certain household goods owned by her, be awarded her, and upon her application for a temporary restraining order to prevent the defendant from selling certain property on the Elba Wilson farm, the restraining order was granted by the court.

Mrs. Wilson prays that she be restored to her maiden name of Ouida Higgins.

Township Trustees Issue 200 Orders

January has been a record breaking month with the township trustees in giving relief to the poor.

Not for a long time has there been as many calls as during this month when the extreme cold, the bitterest weather in many years, has driven many to seek help from the township.

The trustees responded to calls readily, anxious to prevent suffering and 200 orders for coal and groceries were given in January alone.

Falls on Ice Fractures Hip

Mrs. W. J. McCoy, of Bloomingburg, met with a serious accident Tuesday morning. Going from her home she slipped on the ice sustaining a terrible fall in which the hip was fractured.

The attending physician, Dr. Holldren, called Dr. H. L. Stitt, of this city, and the broken bone were replaced. Mrs. McCoy suffered intensely but the fracture is doing as well as possible and it is thought will not prove permanently inconvenient.

THE NEED OF COMPROMISE.

The theory on which our government is founded is that the majority should rule. But that is no reason that the minority should not be represented.

If two men in Fayette county are running for representative in the General Assembly and each stands for a principle directly opposed to the other, one of those principles will be represented in our law-making body and the other will have no recognition whatever, even though the man elected should win only by a dozen votes.

This tends to radicalism.

If the minority were represented it would foster compromise legislation, backed by all the people. Thus instead of swinging from one radical extreme to the other with one set of partisan cranks undoing what another set of partisan cranks had done, and in their turn swinging the legislative pendulum too far in the other direction, we would come more nearly obtaining a sane progressive system of laws enacted more with a view as to their adaptability to existing social and industrial conditions than as to their effect on party politics.

Yesterday a man on the street remarked that if his situation in life was similar to a certain gentleman whom he pointed out, he would be perfectly happy. And yet the chances are that he would not be as contented as he is at present. Our condition is never quite so desirable as many a one we can imagine. We know the defects and disadvantages of our present state, but it is not so easy to see the troubles engendered by combinations of circumstances we have never experienced.

SLOW GRIND OF LITIGATION.

President Taft is calling to Ohio to be careful how she disposes of the judiciary in the new constitution.

Recall or no recall, we want a system of courts that will give us just decisions with a little more expedition than is evident at present.

Do the people of Fayette county know that there are cases on our court docket right now that have been there—threashed back and forth from the Common Pleas to the Circuit, to the Supreme court and back again for more than 20 years. Such results are not a necessary evil; they are just an evil and need to be remedied.

Theodore is at present rather aggressively receptive.

Twenty Don'ts

Ten For Husbands

Ten For Wives

By the Rev. Dr. ALBERT MARION HYDE of Brockton, Mass.

DON'T forget and leave your little courtesies and general kindness at some hotel on your wedding trip. You will need them on the rest of life's journey.

Don't unbosom yourself about your family troubles.

Don't arrange for your second marriage before your first wife is dead.

Don't support the wife and children of the saloon keeper at the expense of your own wife and children.

Don't have nervous prostration when your wife asks you to go out with her for an evening. It is hard on a woman to be a grass widow all the time.

Don't make your wife a stranger to your check book. She is not a hired servant. She is a partner in the business.

Don't make your wife a pack horse. The eight hour man with the sixteen hour wife needs to unionize his home.

Don't carry all your religion in your wife's name.

Don't overlook the fact that the decalogue of Moses is still on the statute books and that it is written for husbands as well as for wives.

Don't forget that the happiest spot on earth is your home.

Poetry-Today

IT WAS EVER THUS.

His nose was snubbed, his hair was red,
And he possessed an ugly head,
His hands were rough, his legs were bowed,
He, strange to say was pigeon-toed,
And yet a woman loved him.

His neck was short, his eyes were near,
His mouth was stretched from ear to ear,
His head was bald, his eyes were green,
His face was fat, his body lean,
And yet a woman loved him.

He had one eye, his legs were gone,
His teeth worn out, his arms in pawn;
His back was humped, his soul was small,
He was a remnant—that is all,
And yet a woman loved him.

It matters not, how hard the face—
How homely be the outer case—
How botched the job, how crude the plan—
Just so they call the thing a man,
A woman's sure to love him—Exchange.

MEN RISK TOO MUCH

Life insurance companies now are very careful about issuing policies to active men over 35 years old for the chances are that they have impaired their health greatly by overwork.

Of course, if steps are taken in time, this damage can be repaired. Mr. Everett Neely, of San Antonio, Tex., says in a recent letter:

"My health failed lately owing to overwork, and as I did not get better after a month, I began taking Vinol. It has given me a better appetite, helped me to sleep and built me up in general so that I now feel like my former self. It is a great pleasure to recommend Vinol to everyone who needs a strength renewer."

Every man, woman and child who is in poor health, weak, nervous and run-down, ought to know that Vinol is exactly the right thing to build them up and make them strong again. It is made from fresh cod livers and tonic iron, without any oil and is delicious to take. We guarantee Vinol to do just what we say and give back your money if it does not.

Old Ordinance Shown Up

Delegate Knight Proves 1787 Document Long Out of Date.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—Professor George W. Knight has placed in the hands of Judge Peck, chairman of the committee on judiciary and bill of rights, citations of decisions of the United States supreme court that make it clear that the state of Ohio has a free hand, so far as the ordinance of 1787 is concerned, to make such a constitution as she sees fit.

The citations by Professor Knight show that the decisions of the supreme court have been clear and uniform in a series of cases, to the effect that after the five states created out of the old Northwest Territory passed from condition of territories to that of states, they passed out from under the obligations of the ordinance except in so far as they chose to remain under them.

WEATHER FORECAST

Washington, Jan. 31.—Indications for tomorrow:

Ohio—Fair; light to moderate westerly winds.

MEN RISK TOO MUCH

Life insurance companies now are very careful about issuing policies to active men over 35 years old for the chances are that they have impaired their health greatly by overwork.

Of course, if steps are taken in time, this damage can be repaired. Mr. Everett Neely, of San Antonio, Tex., says in a recent letter:

"My health failed lately owing to overwork, and as I did not get better after a month, I began taking Vinol. It has given me a better appetite, helped me to sleep and built me up in general so that I now feel like my former self. It is a great pleasure to recommend Vinol to everyone who needs a strength renewer."

Every man, woman and child who is in poor health, weak, nervous and run-down, ought to know that Vinol is exactly the right thing to build them up and make them strong again. It is made from fresh cod livers and tonic iron, without any oil and is delicious to take. We guarantee Vinol to do just what we say and give back your money if it does not.

Won Prizes

Jackson Rodgers, of Good Hope, one of the exhibitors of fancy chickens at the big poultry show, recently held in Chillicothe, won first on Indian Cornish Games and second on Houdowns.

After the show Mr. Rodgers disposed of the chickens at fancy prices. The superiority of Mr. Rodgers' poultry is well known.

Delegate Knight Proves 1787 Document Long Out of Date.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—Professor George W. Knight has placed in the hands of Judge Peck, chairman of the committee on judiciary and bill of rights, citations of decisions of the United States supreme court that make it clear that the state of Ohio has a free hand, so far as the ordinance of 1787 is concerned, to make such a constitution as she sees fit.

The citations by Professor Knight show that the decisions of the supreme court have been clear and uniform in a series of cases, to the effect that after the five states created out of the old Northwest Territory passed from condition of territories to that of states, they passed out from under the obligations of the ordinance except in so far as they chose to remain under them.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND "CURES IN EVERY CASE."

Mr. Jas. McCaffery, Mgr. of the Schlitz Hotel, Omaha, Neb., recommends Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, because it cures in every case. "I have used it myself and I have recommended it to many others who have since told me of its great curative power in diseases of the throat and lungs." Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a reliable family medicine. Give it to your children, and take it yourself when you feel a cold coming on. It checks and cures coughs, colds and croup and prevents bronchitis and pneumonia. Refuse substitutes. Blackmer & Tanquary.

Miners and Operators Submit Books to Subcommittee.

Indianapolis, Jan. 31.—The question of fixing a scale of wages in the bituminous coal fields of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and western Pennsylvania was turned over to a subcommittee of miners and operators, and the arguments of the opposing forces were continued on much the same lines as for the past three days. The subcommittee consists of two operators and two miners, and if an agreement is reached it will be reported to the full committee for ratification. It is not believed that a scale will be agreed on at the present session.

AN IN COURT FOR SPANNING A HUSBAND

Pygmy Head of the House Knocked Out by His Juno Wife.

Georgetown, Conn.—Mrs. Gustave Frederickson of this place is under $500 bonds to keep the peace and not maltreat her husband. This sounds funny, but so are the circumstances.

Mrs. Frederickson, who is a regular Juno in build, is known as the female Samson of the place, and she does not belie her title, weighing 250 pounds and with biceps like a knotted boa constrictor. Her other half is not a half at all, but a mere decimal point, being pygmy in size. It has been her custom to take Freddie across her knee and apply her hand or hair brush when hubby was naughty, or came home with too much hard cider. When the missus saw fit to do these same stunts and hubby expostulated it was the same thing, varied frequently by an enforced incarceration in the hencoop for a day or two. The other evening Mrs. Frederickson varied the monotony of the proceedings by first bouncing a milk bottle off Freddie's head and then laying a poker on it with incisional results.

This was the frost that made the worm turn, for, egged on by his friends and braced by some medicinal elixir, he sought out the local justice and lodged complaint. His bigger half was accordingly haled into court and put under bonds to keep the peace.

ACTUAL STARVATION

Facts About Indigestion and Its Relief That Should Interest You

Although Indigestion and Dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why most people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good-smelling, and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

The best thing to do is to fit yourself to digest any good food.

We believe we can relieve Dyspepsia. We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it, who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promises, and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely, nothing could be fairer. We are located right here and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. Then, if not satisfied, come to us and get your money back. They are very pleasant to take; they aid to soothe the irritable stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, and to promote a healthy and natural bowel action, thus leading to perfect and healthy digestion and assimilation.

A 25c package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases, this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases, we have two larger sizes which sell for 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. Blackmer & Tanquary.

Strike Leader Arrested

Editor Charged With Complicity In Death of Textile Striker.

Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 31.—Joseph Editor, organizer of the Industrial Workers and leader of the woolen operatives here, was arrested on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of Annie LaPiazza, the Italian striker who was killed in the riot on Union street.

Threats of bayonet and bullet were effective in preventing a repetition of rioting by the striking woolen operatives. The city is an armed camp, and while martial law does not prevail, the presence of 21 companies of infantry, two troops of cavalry and 50 metropolitan police, in addition to the local force, practically make it so.

There was but one clash between the strikers and militia, but that resulted in the death of John Ramy, a Syrian boy 18 years old, who received a wound in the breast from either a bayonet or a knife and died a few hours later at the Lawrence hospital.

An autopsy is to be performed to determine the cause of death, as the militiamen declare that Ramy was not near enough to their ranks to have been given a bayonet thrust, and it is asserted that he was stabbed by one of the rioters.

Manufacturers to Carry Nine-Hour Case to Highest Tribunal.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—The women's nine-hour workday law, passed by the last legislature, was held unconstitutional by the Ohio supreme court.

J. L. Hampton and Sheets, West and Game, plaintiff's attorneys, claimed the law abrogated the right of private contract and was an improper classification because of exempting certain enterprises.

Attorney General Hogan, his special counsel, Clarence D. Laylin and Louis D. Brandeis, the noted Boston lawyer, as attorneys for the state, contended that the act is purely a police regulation intended for the protection of health, safety and morals of a community, and that it does not discriminate arbitrarily between different classes of occupations.

Opha Moore, secretary of the Manufacturers' association, announced that the case will be carried to the supreme court of the United States.

MOST ANCIENT OF MEN

RECENT DISCOVERIES IN ENGLAND ARE INTERESTING.

Flint Implements Made Before the Glacial Period of Europe Are Found by an Eminent Archaeologist in Suffolk.

The new discovery in regard to ancient man (of which I am able to speak with full confidence since I have studied the specimens and the localities myself, and have just sent an illustrated account of the implement to the Royal Society) is that of flint implements of very definite and peculiar shape, in some abundance, in a bed at the base of what geologists class as a Pliocene deposit (that is, before the Pleistocene), namely, the "Red Crag" of Suffolk. We owe this most important discovery entirely to Mr. J. Reid Moir of Ipswich, who found his first specimens in October, 1909, and after a year's careful examination of the district and the finding of more specimens in crag pits ten miles and more around Ipswich, announced it in a letter to the Times in October, 1910. Now that another year has passed more specimens have been found and the matter is beyond dispute.

Two distinguished geologists, past presidents of the Geological Society, have certified that the bed in which Mr. Moir's flints are obtained is certainly the undisturbed basement bed of the Red Crag, so that they may be justly spoken of as due to the work of pre-crag man.

The implements are not at all like those previously known. They are not flattened, almond-shaped, or kite-like (elongated, triangular or leaf-shaped), as are the large Paleolithic implement (the Chellean, Acheulian and Mousterian) hitherto known. But they are shaped like the beak of an eagle, compressed from side to side with a keel or ridge extending from the front point backward. Their shape may be compared to the hull of a boat with its keel turned upward and its beak-like prow in front. They are from four to ten inches in length, and all have been fabricated by a few well-directed blows given to an oblong piece of flint so as to knock off great pieces right and left, leaving a keel in the middle, while the lower face is trimmed flat.

These implements are, in fact, beaked hammer heads—probably used in the hand without hafting—and applied to the smoothing and "dressing" of skins, as well as other purposes. Some are more symmetrical and carefully "trimmed" than others. With these, which I call "eagle's beak implements," or the "rostro-ceratine type," are found a few other large and heavy sculptured flints of very curious shape (like picks and axes) unlike any hitherto known, but certainly and without the least doubt chipped into shape by man.

The flint implements—our eagle's beaks made by men in the relatively warm Coralline Crag days—were actually carried off the land by an ice sheet and deposited in the earliest layers of the Red Crag deposit. The irrefragable proof of this is that very many of the eagle's beak flints are scratched and scored on their smooth surfaces by those peculiar cross-running grooves which we find on a pebble from a glacier's "moraine" or stone heap. Nothing but the immense pressure of the stones embedded in one sheet of ice, rasping by slow movement other stones embedded in another sheet of ice over which the first very slowly advances, can produce these markings.

The Red Crag marks the beginning of the Pleistocene and of the glacial condition of North Europe. A great question, difficult of decision, is whether the earliest river gravels which we know in England and France were as early as the Red Crag, overlying which are vast marine deposits of glacial sands and clays. In any case Mr. Moir's flint implements are pre-crag; they were made before the glacial conditions set in, and are quite unlike those found in the river gravels. The discovery is one which will profoundly interest the "prehistorians" of France and Germany, as well as English archaeologists and geologists.—London Times.

Girls That Smoke.

Apropos of the Ritz-Carlton, New York's fashionable hotel that permits ladies to smoke, Mme. Simone, the Parisian actress, said the other day:

"Well, why shouldn't ladies smoke? There's nothing ungraceful in the habit. On the contrary, to see a pretty woman with a cigarette is a very charming picture."

"Those who object to smoking among women have never, perhaps, seen smoking done decorously. Their idea of smoking is that of the old Provencal woman."

"A society girl, calling on this old woman in her cottage, took a cigarette from her gold case, fitted it in a tube of amber, and said:

"You don't mind if I smoke, do you?"

"Why, of course not, dearie! Of course not!" said the old woman. "Jeanne," she added to her servant, "go fetch a spittoon!"

On Second Thought.

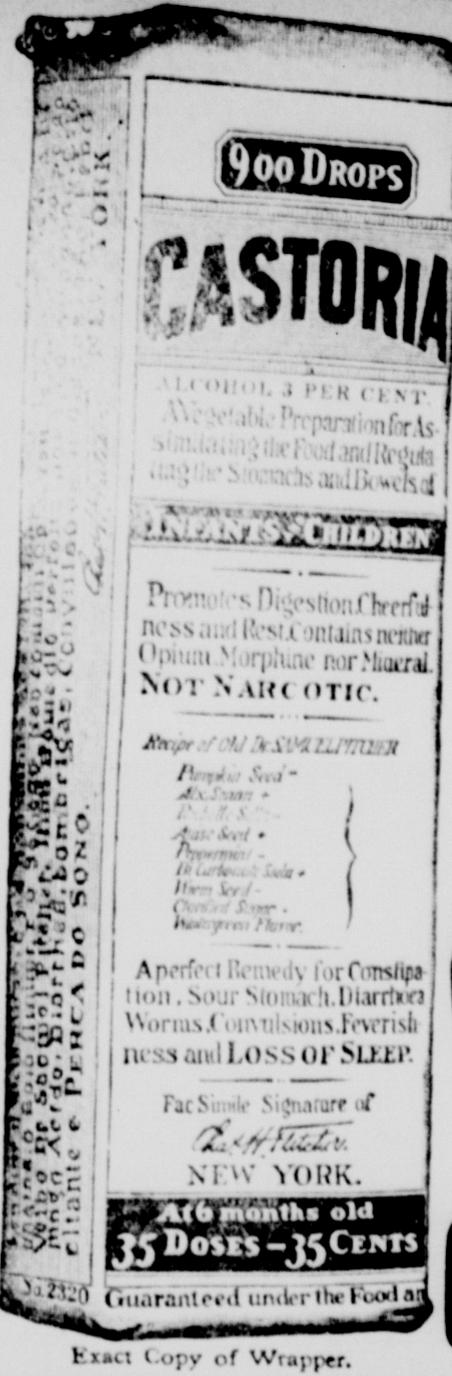

"You know," said the Chinese philosopher, "that our nation really invented gunpowder."

"Yes," replied the court official,

"and when I see the trouble we are having I can't help thinking it was rather foolish of us."

IN CALIFORNIA THEY HAVE FREE AND EASY WAYS.

Annoy the Children and Steal Articles From Clotheslines—Gulls at the Seashore Are Wonderfully Tame and Sociable.

My first experience of the fearlessness of the California bird came to me at second hand, writes a correspondent of Suburban Life. It also came near getting a small boy into trouble. After we were settled in a little home the said small boy went to school on his bicycle, down a busy avenue, with street cars running to and fro constantly. Before he had made the journey many times the child came home one evening and said:

"I wish the birds would leave me alone."

"What birds?" I asked.

"Why, those little blackbirds you see around," he answered. "When I'm riding to school they come down and try to peck my hat off."

The child had always been a truthful child, but my faith in his veracity was shaken. I gently expressed a doubt, but the boy backed up his assertion vehemently.

"They do it every morning," he persisted, and I had to let it go at that.

Later on, in speaking of this particular breed of bird to a neighbor, the boy's statement was justified.

"These little birds certainly are daring," said the neighbor. "I've seen them try to take a piece of bread or cake from a child's hand—and not such a small child, either. They don't seem to have the ordinary fear of mortals, probably because they are never molested here in the city."

One morning, going out to the front door, I found a caller. He was a tiny fellow, riding a tricycle.

"Hello!" he said.

"Hello!" I answered. "What's your name?"

"Henry," was the reply. "I live over there," pointing to a house some distance across a vacant lot, and on another street.

"And what are you doing so far away from home?" I asked.

"I want my little sister's shoe. It's in your yard."

"How did it get in our yard?"

"A bird took it off my mamma's clothesline and brought it over."

And sure enough a search of the yard disclosed the little white shoe, which the bird had pulled from the line and brought over to us. The boy's mother had seen the feathered thief, and watched it till it dropped its booty in our back yard.

The tameness of the gulls at the seashore is another source of wonder and delight. When we go to the beach we save the scraps of our luncheon and use them as a coaxed for the gulls. Sitting on the sand, piece by piece the scraps are thrown around us, and by and by we have a circle of the beautiful and graceful birds, all on the alert for another piece, but equally on the alert for the approach of any thing which might be called an enemy.

At last, when they have found out that no aggressive move is made, the creatures will approach, almost within reach of our hands. On the piers where people are fishing, the gulls will sit in rows, waiting for a chance at discarded bait or fish. People pass constantly to and fro near them, but they show no fear. Rules regarding their protection are very strict, and perhaps this is why they have learned to be so fearless.

In some localities in the city's outskirts telephone and other wires will be covered for a block or more with small birds. What they find to eat in the city is a problem, but they thrive. Some of them are beautiful songsters, and all seem to have cultivated a friendly and fearless disposition.

A True Love Story That Ought to Convince Novel Readers There Is Always Something New Under the Sun, in Love Affairs.

Chicago.—Jaded novel readers who are convinced there is nothing new under the sun in love stories, who believe, in fact, that romance has done nothing in the world in the last 150 years but run 'round and 'round in the same old circle, ought to make a call at 3334 Indiana avenue and shake the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schaffer.

The Schaffers are the authors, also the actors, of this love story. Their romance is new and up to date.

The first chapter discloses Roma Parker, seventeen and pretty, "clerk" in a Chicago department store. This was two years ago. Enter Albert Schaffer, a few years older, good looking, well dressed, earning $20 a week, and convinced he could conquer the world.

Albert looked at Roma and decided on the spot that she should be his. Roma observed Albert and concluded he was her "ideal." Result: Invitation to dinner from Albert to Roma.

Under the stimulus of a good dinner Albert told Roma many things, all fragments of fancy. He said he was an orphan, sole heir to $25,000, and a member of two or three "exclusive clubs." Roma was impressed. He proposed, Roma accepted—end of chapter one.

The marriage was performed in Detroit.

After the marriage ceremony Schaffer's imagination suddenly cooled. Also, consulting his pocketbook, he discovered his money was nearly all gone. With fancy dead, conscience awoke. When the new Mrs. Schaffer began to be insistent about the honeymoon at Niagara Falls Albert suddenly weakened and "told all."

Was Roma angry? It took her about ten seconds to call that honeymoon

He Proposed, Roma Accepted.

It took her somewhat longer to tell Albert what she thought of him—about three hours.

A year elapsed. The next chapter discloses a divorce court. Enter Roma with lawyers; enter Albert with ditto. Roma on the witness stand "tells all." "Decree granted," says the court, "no alimony asked, none allowed." Exit all. Slow music. Nobody happy.

Roma Schaffer, one year older and correspondingly improved in personal puissance, came downtown one afternoon to do some shopping. Among other things, she wanted a small piece of jewelry, and by the sheerest accident, strolling along Michigan boulevard, she saw "the very thing" in the window of a neat little jewelry store. She went into this store. A young man at the far end of the room came around the glass cases to wait on her. Their eyes met.

"Al," said Roma at last, "I think we're both a couple of sniffs, sniffs fools. I think we were right in the first place. I think we ought to have (boo hoo) stayed married. Don't you think we'd ought to have stayed (boo hoo) married, Al?"

"You bet I do," retorted Al. "And what we are going to do right now is get married again. And it isn't all getfuss with me this time, either. I own this place."

"Al," said Roma, after certain preliminaries, "I came here to get a piece of jewelry."

"Sure," replied Al. "I'd forgotten, but I think I know exactly what you want. How would this handsome solitaire do? And remember, we guarantee all our goods."

Albert and Roma were remarried the next day in Milwaukee.

Child Comes to Life. Kingston, N. J.—John J. Murphy undertaker, was called to the home of Frank Guldane to prepare the latter's baby for burial. He found signs of life. The child will recover.

Special to Herald.

Boston, Mass.—Cardinal William O'Connell arrived from Rome at 7:30 a. m. today, receiving great reception.

USE OF CROSS IN HERALDRY

More Than Four Hundred Forms of the Device Are Recognized in That Science.

In early pagan days the cross was a symbol of shame and ignominy, and only those deformed or misshapen trees that could be used for no other purpose were formed into crosses. But since the cross has become dear to Christians, says the "Ave Maria," the most precious woods and metals have been formed into it. To the third century may be traced the custom of making the Sign of the Cross. In the days of Constantine, Christians painted crosses on the entrances of their houses as a symbol of their faith.

The impetus to the use of the cross in heraldry was given by the Crusaders, who wore a red cross upon their right shoulder as a token of the obligation they had taken upon themselves.

Its form and meanings in heraldic designs are many. In fact, over four hundred and seven different forms have been recorded by students of biography and genealogy.

In heraldry the cross is formed by two perpendicular and two horizontal lines crossing in the center of the shield. This form is modified in various ways by additions and combinations, thus expressing many meanings. It has been said that human intelligence has never devised a system so infinite in its varieties and so endless in its application as is to be found in the science of heraldry, in which figure twenty-seven basic or fundamental crosses.

The Greek cross has all four arms of equal length, while the Latin cross has the earth end longer than the other three arms. The Calvary or Christ cross rests upon three steps or degrees. The Patriarch cross is recognized by its double crossbar. The St. Andrew's cross is an X, in token of the form of cross on which that saint suffered martyrdom by having his hands and feet bound to its four arms. The St. Anthony cross is shaped like a T, and has its name from the cross that St. Anthony, abbot, wore upon his cloak, though the origin of his cross seems to be Egyptian.

It is a matter of interest that many American families have the cross as the basic emblem of their escutcheons. Among them are at least five of the presidents. The Garfield shield has a blue cross in the dexter canton, and the family motto is, "In the cross I conquer." The Tyler shield had on it a bar, two crescents and a cross form. The shield of the Adams family was adorned by a large cruciform device.

Tribute to Amazons.

The magnificent example of the women of Dahomey should be made widely known wherever their more civilized sisters are to be found struggling for their rights. Frederick Martyn of the French foreign legion, who fought in the recent Dahomey campaign, tells us emphatically that "the female of the species is more deadly than the male." The Senegalese tirailleurs were attacked by the Amazons, and Mr. Martyn says that "any one inclined to sympathize with the Amazons on account of their sex and to look upon the combat between them and our men as unequal, may take it from me that their sympathy would be misplaced. These young women were far and away the best men in the Dahomeyan army, and woman to man were quite a match for any of us. They fought like unchained demons, and if driven into a corner, did not disdain to use their teeth and nails."

They fought like unchained demons, and if driven into a corner, did not disdain to use their teeth and nails." It may be an error of policy to make these facts known, and thus to stimulate a militancy already vigorous enough.

Unseen Universe.

In the vicinity of the star S. Coronae Australis Innes and Worsell have found a patch of sky 25 minutes of arc in diameter where no star can be seen with a 9-inch refracting telescope.

According to Innes, who discusses the subject in "Transvaal Observatory Circular No. 5," the apparent absence of stars in this region is due to the occurrence of some absorbing medium, interposed between us and distant parts of the universe.

Stars in the neighborhood of the dark region are enveloped in nebulae; while just on the border of it there is a star which has been observed to fluctuate in magnitude between 11.0 and 12.2, and which was invisible during the years 1899-1901.

The latter fact is accounted for on the supposition that the absorbing medium was for a time in front of the star, but has since withdrawn from it.

Sample Case in D. T. & I. Baggage Room Robbed During Night and Five Boys Who Were in Depot Are Arrested on Suspicion of Being Implicated—Special Officer Here to Prosecute Case.

Some time during Tuesday night, a traveling bag or sample case, owned by W. R. Shockley, representative of the Elwood Myers Company, manufacturers of leather novelties, was robbed of nearly $200 worth of goods at the D. T. & I. depot in this city.

The case had been broken open and after the contents, consisting of leather novelties of many kinds, had been removed, the case was fastened again, and the loss not discovered until in the morning when Mr. Shockley went to get his sample cases and discovered the theft.

The matter was placed in the hands of the chief, and an investigation disclosed that five youths had been in the depot during the night, and two or more of them are alleged to have remained over night.

Suspicion pointed toward the boys having some knowledge of the affair, as the outside doors of the baggage room are said to have been locked. The goods are supposed to have been stolen while the "third trick" man was asleep in the office.

Chief McCoy took up the case and arrested Derrill Devore, Thurman Palmer, Chas. Butters and the two Burnett boys, known as "big and little Yellow" Burnett. All of the boys stoutly protested their innocence, but were placed in the cage to remain until late Wednesday afternoon, when a special officer of the D. T. & I. arrives to prosecute the case.

Many complaints have been made of petty thievery about the railroad depots of the city.

Jury Disagreed In Syferd Case

After two hours' deliberation on the evidence in the case of Ohio vs. Gilbert Syferd, the jury at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon disagreed and was excused from further deliberation in the case.

Mr. Syferd was indicted for assaulting Walter R. Smith, who was hunting upon land owned or controlled by Syferd.

The case of Ohio against John Harley, indicted for non-support, was taken up immediately after the jury disagreed. Attorney Lee Rankin is counsel for the defendant.

THE NATIONAL VACUUM CLEANER

One of the Grandest Labor Saving, House Cleaning Machines

The National Vacuum Cleaner saves health and lengthens lives by removing from the homes all the deadly dust and disease germs. With the use of brooms the dust is raised in the air, finding its way to your lungs and settling on every wall, curtain and piece of furniture. The National Vacuum Cleaner collects all this dust and keeps your home sanitary condition, making it safe for your little ones to play on the floor.

Read below what a few of our score of delighted patrons have to say:

TESTIMONIALS

The Herald Pub. Co.,
Premium Department,
Gentlemen:—

I recently secured from you a National Vacuum Cleaner and have used it with the greatest success and satisfaction. It is a splendid machine and does perfectly all and more than is claimed for it.

Mrs. Lydia Porter,
Paint and Main Sts., City.

The Herald Pub. Co.,
Premium Department,
Gentlemen:—

Your National Vacuum Cleaner has been delivered and I can truthfully say that it does all that it is advertised to do and gives entire satisfaction.

Mrs. V. C. Rowe,
329 E. Market St., City.

The Herald Pub. Co.,
Premium Department,
Gentlemen:—

You may say that I am well pleased with the National Vacuum Cleaner which I purchased of you. It is a wonderful labor saving device and should prove a boon to all housewives.

Mrs. Amy Hoppe,
New Holland, O., R. F. D. 2

The Herald Pub. Co.,
Premium Department,
Gentlemen:—

Having used your National Vacuum Cleaner I can heartily say it gives entire satisfaction and does all you represent it to do.

Mrs. James H. Allen,
231 N. Main St., City.

The Herald Pub. Co.,
Premium Department,
Gentlemen:—

I can endorse the National Vacuum Cleaner. It is the best proposition on the market today in an article of that kind. It works perfectly and is a constant source of comfort for a housekeeper.

Mrs. O. D. Merchant,
West Elm St., City.

The Herald Pub. Co.,
Premium Department,
Gentlemen:—

You can state that I am entirely satisfied with the National Vacuum Cleaner and that I can recommend it to my friends.

Mrs. A. L. Walters,
217 W. Market St., City.

Some Good Points

Weight only 4½ pounds and can be operated with either right or left hand.

Has patented flexible nozzle. Held at any height it works satisfactorily.

Has a stronger suction than other Cleaners and gets not only the SURFACE dirt, but also the dirt that is IN and BENEATH the floor covering.

It takes only ONE person to handle this machine and it is easier to operate than any other Cleaner.

A child can operate it.

Think how the wear and tear of your furniture and curtains will be saved by not having dust in your carpets. Use this Cleaner and have a sanitary home.

Removes all disease germs from the carpets that are brought into the house on the shoes.

Absolute cleanliness if you use this Vacuum Cleaner.
